

How can I keep someone from coming back on my property who doesn't belong there?

You may request that an officer respond and issue a trespass warning to the person. If the person returns after the warning is issued, you may have the person arrested.